3. [redacted] [redacted] called to say that John Ingersoll, Director, Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, planned to meet with Representative Paul Rogers (D., Fla.) in the next few days to brief him on allegations that the Chinese Communist were secretly encouraging drug traffic in Southeast Asia. [redacted] said there was no real evidence to support this claim and added that he would send us a copy of the statement which we were giving Ingersoll for his use in briefing Rogers.
